The Masai Mara National Reserve is in the south western part of Kenya and forms part of the greater eco-system that encompasses the Serengeti National Park in Tanzania. The Masai Mara is one of the best known and most visited reserves in Africa. The park is surrounded by concession areas and tribal lands of the Masai tribes people. These are unfenced from the Mara and act as a buffer zone for the National Park and form part of the migration area. The Masai Mara consists of open savannah, rolling grasslands and undulating hills. July to September sees the annual migration of wildebeest, zebra and gazelle coming from the plains of the Serengeti. Driven by dry conditions in the Serengeti and led by the lightning and thunder to the north, huge herds of mammals cross the Tanzanian border and rivers to reach the Mara's grasslands.

Overnight at the Mara Sopa Lodge

DAY 08 >>> SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 2019 >>> MASAI MARA NATIONAL GAME RESERVE (B/L/D)

You will not want to miss a single moment of your day in the Masai Mara, so we suggest an early wake-up call this morning. The early morning game drive often offers you the very best chance to see an excellent variety of wildlife on the move in the cool of the dawn. The Mara offers such an abundance and variety of wildlife that you will be surprised and thrilled around just about every corner! The reserve is particularly known for its Big Cats, and Lion in particular are commonly sighted. The rest of the Big Five are also in attendance and you have a good chance of seeing Buffalo, Elephant, Rhino and even the elusive Leopard. Birders will enjoy the large numbers of raptors, including several species of Vulture.

If your budget will permit, you can opt to swop the early morning game drive for a Hot-air Balloon excursion, a really unforgettable hour spent drifting over the plains of the Mara just as the sun tentatively peeks over the horizon. Your flight will be followed by a champagne breakfast in the bush on touch-down.

After your game drive or balloon safari you will return to the camp where you have the rest of the day to relax and prepare for your afternoon game drive. Perhaps you can go for a guided Nature Walk or just relax as you enjoy the facilities at the camp. Another alternative to this would be to spend the whole day with a game drive with picnic lunches being served in the wild and return to your camp later in the evening.
